

K-Love is an encouraging radio station and it broadcasts specific world news that is hard to find on other stations.

Removing this station will negatively affect my community because other radio stations don't have the moral standards that K-Love does.

K-Love's service is in the public's interest because it encourages good morals and a family friendly environment through its announcers and its music.